

Over 450 mountains in Appalachia have already been destroyed by MountainTop Removal. 800 square miles of forested mountains have vanished; more than 1200 miles of streams have been buried or polluted by backfill.

JP Morgan Chase is the single largest financier of MountainTop Removal in the United States.

Reverend Billy and the folks in the Life After Shopping Gospel Choir are growing mountains in the Chase lobbies of New York, and so are lots of Earth Believers! Dis-invest from this bank. Make Chase stop MountainTop Removal.

Exploded peaks, clearcuts, floods, air pollution, slurry pools, cancers, elevated infant mortality, habitat destruction – by any measure, this dirty coal operation is madness. We love mountains!
